The following Conflicts of Interest were identified: Alison Durrans – Alison's Partner is employed by SATH in the Contracts Department, this was identified as a conflict as SATH could potentially have bid for this contract. It was agreed by the Commissioners that SATH were unlikely to bid, therefore in the early stages of the procurement the conflict did not pose any issues or require mitigation. Claire Roberts - Clinical Adviser (Optometry) NHS England North Midlands, Chair, Local Eye Health Network NHS England West Midlands: in this role, Claire works collaboratively with a range of stakeholders including Richard Rawlinson, who is a commissioning lead for LDCSU. LDCSU advises Local Optical Committees across England and supports the development/commissioning of local optometry services through Primary Eyecare companies. Claire also is employed part time as a locum optometrist at an independent optometry practice in Dudley – Pinder and Moore. It was agreed by the Commissioners that Claire's involvement in the documented organisations did not pose a risk to the procurement.	01/04/2019	31/03/2022	3 Years and 24 Months Optional Extension	£606,960.00 per annum	Value Varies Per Annum	To be agreed by Shropshire CCG Contracting
STW-18-24	St Michael's Clinic Ltd	Dermatology Services	Helen Rowney (T&WCCG), David Whiting (SCCG)	OIEU Open Procedure (Under Light Touch Regime)	TBC	Dr John Pepper and Dr Adam Pringle	CCG Board Meetings	been treated by the Shropshire Skin Clinic as a private patient free of charge, having sought further information, Dr Pepper confirmed from his records this was 11 years ago. Dr Pepper also declared that he attends the Shropshire and Powys Skin Club on an ad-hoc basis. These initial Conflicts were considered, however due to the time lapse in respect of the time between treatment and this procurement process, it was agreed that there was no risk to the process. The attendance at the Shropshire and Powys Skin Club is part of professional development. At the evaluation stage in the process an additional Conflict was identified by Dr John Pepper, in that one of the bidders (DMC) had identified Dr Pepper's GP Practice as a potential location for their service offer. It was confirmed this has not been agreed and the Practice could not host the service. Contact had been made by DMC, however this initial contact email was deleted by the Practice Manager and not responded to. Based on the actions the Commissioners agreed Dr Pepper could continue with his evaluation. Dr Adam Pringle – Declared that he was a GP Partner in Teledoc.
