

Patient requests Flash Glucose Monitoring from GP or Diabetes Specialist Team

Patient's diabetes usually managed by Secondary Care

Patient's diabetes usually managed by Community Diabetes Team

Patient's diabetes usually managed by GP

Patient's self-funding flash glucose monitoring

Patient seen by out of area diabetes specialist team

Patient to be considered for flash glucose monitoring at time of next routine appointment

Patients meeting criteria for flash glucose monitoring to be referred as non-urgent, routine referral to Diabetes specialist team (Community or Secondary Care as clinically appropriate) for review and consideration for flash glucose monitoring initiation

Patient to be assessed by GP against criteria, prior approval template (provided by medicines management team) to be completed and forwarded to CCG medicines management for approval

Patient to be assessed by out of area team against commissioning policy criteria, Blueteq initiation or prior approval template to be completed and forwarded to CCG

SCCG to grant 6 month funding approval for patient's that meet the NHSE funding criteria for flash glucose monitoring.

Diabetes team to initiate patient on 6 month trial, complete Blueteq initiation form, provide patient with NHS starter pack (reader and 1 sensor) and notify GP

CCG grant approval for patient's that meet the NHSE funding criteria for flash glucose monitoring. 6 month trial will not be applicable in these patients as they should already demonstrate a reduction in HbA1c

Diabetes team to initiate patient on 6 month trial, provide patient with NHS starter pack (reader and 1 sensor) and notify GP

GP to provide ongoing prescriptions for flash glucose sensors (2 sensors/month) unless otherwise notified

GP to provide ongoing prescriptions for flash glucose sensors (2 sensors/month) unless otherwise

After 6 month trial, diabetes team to assess if patient meets continuation criteria and to complete a Blueteq continuation form for those that do. For patients that do not meet criteria the GP should be notified to discontinue prescribing the sensors

SCCG Medicines Management to inform GP of approval and upload patient's details onto Blueteq.
GP to prescribe flash glucose monitoring sensors.

After 6 month trial, diabetes team to assess if patient meets continuation criteria and to submit a Blueteq continuation form/ template to SCCG for approval for those that meet criteria. For patients that do not meet criteria the GP should be notified to discontinue prescribing the sensors